CADELL

The name CADELL was chosen as a stud prefix, by Ray Harper because this was the name of one of the properties purchased by his grandfather, David Harper, when he moved to the Temora district from Victoria in 1910. Research shows there was a Captain Frances Cadell RN who was the first man to navigate the Murray River from its mouth to Swan Hill in a paddle steamer, named The Lady Augusta. He did this in 1853.

The late Ray Harper

CADELL STUD

The Cadell Border Leicester Stud was founded by the late Ray Harper in 1946. The stud was started on Kelso and Yarra bloodlines with several rams purchased from Squire and Freebairn's Bumbaldry Stud. The stud had humble beginnings, starting with only 20 ewes to build to a peak of 1100 ewes. Cadell currently runs between 800 and 900 ewes, selling approximately 400 rams, annually. The stud is now run by Ray's son, Barry, grandson Robert and the fourth generation in great grand-children, Blake, Chloe, Olivia and Noah.

Cadell is continuously striving to improve the quality within their flock and hence this will be passed on through the progeny. Selected rams have been used from The Oaks, Crymelon, Chandivan and Raywil studs. In more recent years, stud rams from Coolawang and Bindaree studs have been used.

This year at the 51st sale, Cadell will offer a number of 2025 quality bred Border Leicesters, comprising of 140 rams to mark the recognition of 80 years of successful breeding.
